Terms & Conditions

Conditions of Carriage

Air transportation on Delta and the Delta Connection® carriers is subject to Delta's conditions of carriage. They include terms governing for example:

- Limits on our liability for personal injury or death of passengers, and for loss, damage of delay of goods and baggage.

- Claim restrictions including time periods within which you must file a claim or bring action against us.
- Our right to change terms of the contract.
- Check-in requirements and other rules established when we may refuse carriage.
- Our rights and limits of our liability for delay of failure to perform service, including schedule change, substitution of alternative air carriers or aircraft, and rerouting.
- Our policy on overbooking flights, and your rights if we deny you boarding due to an oversold flight.

These terms are incorporated by reference into our contract with you. You may view these conditions of carriage on delta.com, or by requesting a copy from Delta.

You have received this email because you elected to receive your Electronic Ticket receipt sent to you via email. It is the passenger's responsibility to confirm flight information and check-in location prior to each departure. We recommend that you arrive at the airport a minimum of 90 minutes in advance of departure for domestic flights and at least 2 hours in advance of departure for international flights. If you fail to arrive at your gate on time, the airline has the right to cancel your reservation and make you ineligible for denied boarding compensation. If you choose not to take any of the flights for which you are ticketed, the airlines will automatically cancel the remainder of your reservation.

All adults, 18 and over, are required to show valid photo identification when traveling domestically (examples include a driver's license, passport or state identification card). If you are traveling outside the U.S., all travelers, including persons under age 18, are required to present a valid passport, and you may also need to show additional documentation at your destination and/or in connecting countries.

Carry-on and checked baggage guidelines vary by airline, we recommend that you check your airline's Web site for answers to specific baggage questions. Airlines will not always guarantee seat assignments prior to airport check-in. If there is not a seat assignment printed on your ticket and/or itinerary, your carrier will assign one at the airport on the day of departure.

For requirements due to disability, requests for special meals, or questions about traveling with pets, skis, etc., call your airline in advance so they are prepared to meet your needs. Please note - Priceline cannot guarantee that special needs requests will be met. Special meals are not available on all airlines and meal service is not guaranteed on all flights.

If your flight is delayed or canceled or you are denied boarding at the airport due to over booking, immediately check with your airline gate agent for information and instructions.

If your journey involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Warsaw Convention may be applicable and the Convention governs and in most cases limits the liability of carriers for death or personal injury and for loss of or damage to baggage. Also see the notices entitled Advice to International Passengers on Limitation of Liability, and Notice of Baggage Liability Limitations, Notice of Incorporated Terms, Notice - Overbooking of Flights.

Air transportation to be provided between points in the U.S. (including its overseas territories and possessions) is subject to the individual contract terms (including rules, regulations, tariffs, and conditions) of the transporting air carriers, which are herein incorporated by reference and made part of the contract of carriage. Also see the notices entitled Conditions of Contract, Notice of Incorporated Terms, Notice of Baggage Liability Limitations, and Notice of Overbooking.
